INSTRUCTION: Read the passage carefully and answer the questions that follow.

At about one o'clock that day, the pupils of Obinkita community school had already arrived. Two hours later the pupils of the Community primary school, Eziana also arrived at Nworieubi Sports Stadium. They had come to cheer their school teams. The two teams were the best teams in the State. They had come to Nworieubi to play the finals of chief Mpiagbo cup for primary schools in Imo state. The Obinkita boys were tall, huge and proud. They thought they would win. Their supporters were already singing and rejoicing. The Eziana boys were small and afraid. They were not sure they could win.

Immediately the match began, the captain of Eziana team. Otite took the ball from the centre of the field and started running towards the Obinkita goal mouth. Everybody was surprised when he scored a goal. Before the shouts of joy from supporters of Eziana team stopped, Otite was again at the Obinkita's goal mouth, all what the Obinkita boys did, could not stopped him. He kicked the ball very hard and scored the second goal. It was like magic. The Obinkita boys tried as much as possible to score but they could not. The Eziana boys played the ball out of the field any time the ball was near their goal mouth. At last the Referee blew the whistle. PASSAGE- B. (5 Marks)

Read the passage carefully and answer the questions below

Many years ago, there was a great famine in the village called Allurland. People died like chickens and there was no one to bury them. No one felt strong enough to perform the ceremonies. Many people left the country and trekked away to the East across the lake and to the West into the forest. Many people sold their children to get food, only those who loved their children very much preferred to keep them and starve with them. Even the daughter of the chiefs were married off to obtain food, for even the rulers were hungry. Men of lowly birth who had food married princesses.

People would eat anything. If they found things that only looked like potatoes they ate them, not minding whether they were poisonous or not. Consequently many people who ate such poisonous items died. They would have been better off not eating at all.

PASSAGE- B

Read the passage carefully and answer the questions below.

One day, Yele and two other friends were returning from the bush. They came to a place where a woman was gathering firewood. She was not very old but she looked poor. Her dress was torn here and there.

Yele watched this woman and felt sorry for her. He had not seen her before. His two other friends knew her very well. Yele again stopped to watch this woman. His friends called "Yele, come let us go home. Leave this woman alone"

Yele followed them but he was thinking of the woman. He wanted to talk to her and help her. When they reached the town, Yele spoke to his friends, "Go home, I am going out soon with Dele, I will see you tonight".

As soon as his friends had gone home, Yele ran back to see the poor woman she had tied up the firewood and was trying to lift it onto her head. But she could not because as she bent down to pick the firewood, she fell down. She tried again.

'Stop it, Yele shouted to her, I will help you' He picked up the firewood and placed it on his head. 'Thank you, my son, may God bless you, said the woman.
